

What idea is important to me?

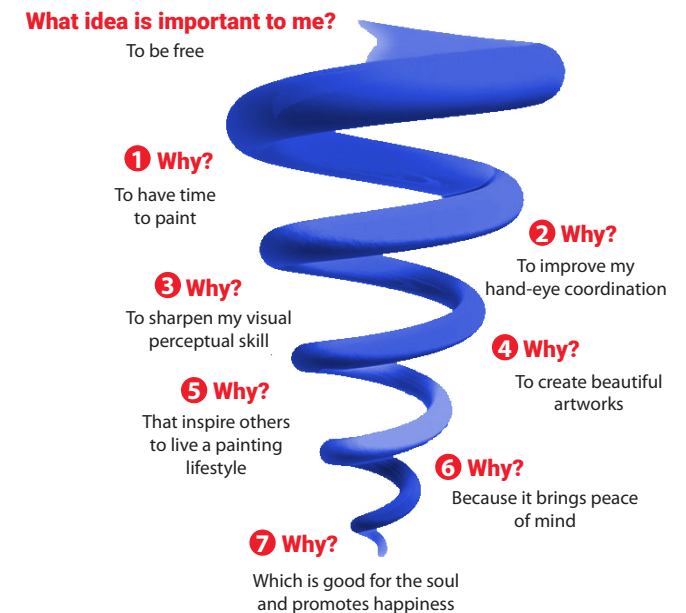

Instructions

Identify an idea that is important to you, that you would like to share with the world.

Put this at the top of your spiral and work your way down to the heart of the matter—asking seven times, why is this (idea) important to me?

Example

What makes me tick?